In addition to the above mentioned work performed, the members of the bureau also rendered much assistance to local and out-of-town officers in exhibiting photos of criminals to victims of robberies, confidence games, pickpockets, thefts of automobiles, bank robberies and other robberies for the purpose of identification.

Copies of photos were made of persons wanted who were not previously handled by the Bureau of Identification. New photos were also taken of criminals previously on file but who had not been arrested for a number of years.

During the year the bureau exchanged photos and finger prints with the California State Bureau, Sacramento, Calif., Michigan State Bureau, Lansing, Mich., Ohio State Bureau, Columbus, Ohio, and Oklahoma State Bureau, Oklahoma City, Okla.

Photos of confidence men and pickpockets were furnished to other cities for use in keeping fairs, carnivals, etc., clear of this class of crooks.

The photographer and members of the bureau visited the scene of homicides, burglaries, fires, robberies and other crimes for the purpose of taking photographs of finger prints and other articles to be used before the Coroner and the courts.

During the year the department established a system of photographing criminals full length, standing front and side view; also the use of a Model "C" Balopticon photographing machine to make the photos of criminals and suspects life size, and for showing lantern slides enlarged.

The bureau also rendered much assistance to government officials, Post Office Department, Treasury Department Secret Service, Department of Justice, and Treasury Department Internal Revenue, the latter being furnished with two copies of the photograph with description and finger print classification of every drug addict or any person arrested in connection with violation of the drug laws.

The Immigration Department, Prohibition Department, American Railway Express Company, and various railroad companies were also given valuable assistance by the bureau during the year.

* The Traffic Division

The Police Department, being confronted with one of the greatest and ever-increasing problems of traffic regulation, maintains a unit which is known as the Traffic Division, the officers of which are charged with the duty of regulating and facilitating the movement of traffic on the public streets. Besides their regular duties the officers of this division are assigned to special details, such as weddings, funerals, picnics, etc.

The personnel of this division consists of the following: Captain John H. Glassco, Lieutenants John Y. Goodwin and Fred L. Lang (Lieut. Lang being assigned to the Motorcycle Squad), five sergeants, three of whom are assigned to traffic duty on foot and two to motorcycle duty; one hundred and twenty-seven patrolmen, and seventeen probationary patrolmen, of which seventy-nine patrolmen and two probationary patrolmen are assigned to traffic duty on foot and 48 patrolmen and 15 probationary patrolmen to motorcycle duty. These, with four clerks, two utilitymen, one stenographer and one telephone operator, comprise the entire force.

The offices of this division are located in rooms 37 and 38, on the third floor of Police Headquarters. The traffic officers report for roll call at the nearest district station houses which are most conveniently located to their places of assignment.

The officers of the Motorcycle Squad occupy quarters in the new Police Garage, 3915 Laclede avenue.

There are 85 automatic traffic signals installed at various intersections throughout the city, of which 51 are single-unit type, 33 are four-unit type, and one three-unit type. There are also 30 complete four-unit and three single-unit automatic traffic signals on hand awaiting the appropriation of sufficient funds for the installation of same.

Value of the automatic signals in operation and on hand:

54 single-unit type, $450 each.....	$24,300
64 four-unit type, $685 each.....	43,840

Total amount expended for signals.....$68,140

Damages incurred to automatic signals during past year:

$2,962.43 Collected for damages.
140.45 Damaged in unknown manner.
888.56 Unable to collect.
457.01 Pending settlement.

$4,448.45 Total amount of damage to signals.

The two utilitymen report for duty at the Police Garage, 3915 Laclede avenue, and their entire time is required to maintain in working order the 85 automatic signals, which operate twenty-four hours a day; also to repair and replace damaged signals.

OFFICE OF THE INSPECTOR OF POLICE

On August 9, 1921, the Board of Police Commissioners created the office of the Inspector of Police, dispensing with the old Bureau of Efficiency, as well as the office of Judge-Advocate and Investigator, the duties appertaining to those offices being continued and now being performed by the Inspector's office.

The following personnel constitutes the office of Inspector of Police:

1 Inspector of Police	1 Detective Sergeant
1 Field Captain	1 Detective
1 Instructor of Police	1 Uniform Inspector
1 Lieutenant of Police	3 Patrolmen
1 Drillmaster	1 Stenographer

Through the office of the Inspector of Police a mass of detail work passes, consisting of applications for lost time, to retain rewards, employ counsel, file civil suits, retain gifts, etc., all carrying a report or indorsement of the Inspector after an investigation has been made to determine the status of such applications.

Perhaps the greatest and most pronounced function of the office of the Inspector of Police is to adjudicate the matter of complaints lodged against members of the department, which are manifold and diversified, some being of a trivial nature, but, nevertheless, causing the office to act as a clearing house for every matter concerning the inefficiency of a civilian employe or misconduct of one of the rank and file, each case necessitating a report to the Chief of Police for his information and the guidance of the Board.

In addition to the regular routine of the office, tours of inspection are regularly made to the various districts by the Inspector of Police, as well as preparing all charges, subpoenas, etc., fixing dates of trials before the Board and prosecuting such charges, the proceedings of which are reported by the Inspector's stenographer.

A general idea of the nature of the various detail matters handled by the Inspector's office can be gained after a perusal of the following data:

The field captain makes special investigations, etc., at the direction of the inspector, and assists in inspections, tours and examinations held.

The instructor receives all applications for appointment in every branch of the department. After an applicant files an application for appointment to the force, and after the concurrent interview and inspection by the Board, the instructor supervises the subsequent examinations, as well as causing an investigation to be made anent the character of each applicant. An appointee to the force is committed to the School of Instruction, where he is drilled on matters he is likely to encounter in the active performance of police duty.

The instructor of police also investigates the eligibility of applicants who seek licenses as private watchmen.

The drillmaster has complete charge of the revolver practice, directing the officers in the proper manner of fire, coaching them in the development of their skill in marksmanship, and supervises the course laid out for officers who have failed to qualify in either instance as marksmen or experts. Great improvement has been shown in the system now used, whereby every member of the rank and file is required to participate in the practice and must continue until they have made the required score of 160 at their first trial.

During the practice 1,699 officers and 45 chauffeurs participated, 54 experts competing for the three handsome medals awarded by the Board. Five per cent of the men of the department qualified as experts, 18.3 per cent as marksmen, and 76.5 per cent as first-class, bringing the average of the men up much higher than in previous years.

The uniform inspector inspects all uniforms, hats, caps, leggings, etc., worn by members of the department; delineates the specifications as to quality, workmanship, etc., of the uniforms purchased for the use of members of the department; arbitrates the matter of applications for reimbursement for damage to uniforms and paraphernalia while in the discharge of police duty, and officiates as sergeant-at-arms in the preservation of order and decorum at all meetings of the Board of Police Commissioners, and during all trials prosecuted before the Board. A clipping bureau is maintained by him, in which are preserved clippings from local metropolitan papers bearing on police activity and otherwise.

THE POLICE JOURNAL

The Police Journal began the fifteenth year of its existence with the issue of April 3, 1926. The main reason for the publication of a weekly newspaper of its kind in the Police Department is to keep the personnel of the force thoroughly informed of pertinent matters pertaining to their work, and in that manner help to weld the organization into a harmonious and more effective unit for the prevention and eradication of crime in this community.

That the publication of the Journal has helped very materially to make the work of the officers more efficient, and the results achieved thereby more beneficial in every way to the citizens of St. Louis, no one can consistently deny who is in a fair position to judge of the workings of the department, and of the service given by the force as a whole during the past fourteen years.

The Journal has always believed in boosting the department whenever the occasion warranted such a course. It has always endeavored to give full credit to all officers who make arrests which stand out above the ordinary, everyday routine of police activity. It has encouraged the men by this publicity, and is always pleased to chronicle splendid work on the part of officers of the force, believing that in so doing it is helping to create a desire on the part of other officers to do likewise.

Officers of the law are just the same as other citizens and, like others, a word of praise for duty well done is not out of place, as it makes them feel that their efforts to give the department the benefit of the best that is in them is duly appreciated.

The slogan of the department, "Efficient Police Make a City of Peace," which was donated by Mr. G. H. Palin of New York City in 1924, for use of the Police Journal, is being lived up to in a manner that is most convincing to those who are aware of the great handicaps under which a police department functions. That the officers of the department are not forgetting this slogan is evidenced by their splendid work in preventing crime and in arresting violators after offenses against the law have been committed.

The contents of the Journal have always been made as interesting and instructive to members of the department as possible. As the official organ of the Board of Police Commissioners and Police Department the Journal publishes the weekly proceedings of the Board, formal orders of the Chief of Police, city ordinances affecting police work, all warrants issued for arrests covering other than minor offenses, and other items of general interest to the force.

It has a mailing list which includes police departments of other cities, public libraries, sociological organizations and reputable citizens who are intensely interested in police work. So far as known it is the only weekly newspaper of its kind in the world. It is issued gratis to members of the department and others who have need for a publication of this character.

POLICE BAND

The St. Louis Metropolitan Police Band was organized in September, 1921, with 17 members, and has since grown to an organization of 35 members, and has developed into a musical organization second to none in the city. The uniforms and instruments are furnished by the Board of Police Commissioners, each member being responsible for his uniform and the instrument he plays. The officers of the band are as follows:

Captain Charles H. Loepker, Eleventh District, president.
 Lientenant William L. Henry, Eighth District, vice-president.
 Patrolman Fred H. Windmoeller, Central District, assistant leader.
 Lieutenant James J. Moran, Third District, drum major.
 Patrolman Harry Ziegler, Eleventh District, secretary and librarian.
 Patrolman Edward Schlewing, Traffic Division, color bearer.
 Patrolman Henry Bruns, Traffic Division, banner bearer.

Professor Henry J. Falkenhainer, one of the most capable band leaders in the city, and a member of the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra, is band leader and instructor, and through his untiring efforts the Police Band has developed into one of the best musical organizations of its kind in the country.

Rehearsals are held each Tuesday from 2 to 5 p. m. at the Eleventh District Station. The band always attends funerals of deceased officers, except in few instances where the families of the deceased officers do not desire the services of the band, which has only been on one or two occasions.

The fourteen district stations are each equipped with common battery switchboards with approved storage battery and battery charging equipment; also with automatic flashing device for flashing the red signal light, with which each of the patrol boxes is equipped.

Connected with Police Headquarters switchboard, located in Police Headquarters Building, are trunk lines to each of the fourteen district station switchboards.

Connected with each district station are trunk lines to the adjoining district switchboards. In the event that the Headquarters switchboard direct trunk line to a district station should be out of order the Headquarters operator may connect with the disabled district through the adjoining district, and may in such manner give satisfactory service until the direct trunk line is repaired.

Connected with the department switchboards are 736 telephones, 620 of these being in patrol boxes; also a like number of red signal flashlights.

During the year five additional patrol boxes, equipped with recall flashlights, have been added. The recall flashing is effected by employing the 125-volt lighting current, properly regulated by transformers, the flashing being done over the telephone talking circuit.

Necessary new work, repairs and general maintenance of the police telephone, patrol and flashlight service has been given prompt and courteous attention by the Fire and Police Telegraph Department.

The City Light, Heat and Power Branch has also responded to requests for new work, materials and repairs.

INNOVATIONS DURING THE PAST YEAR

Physical Examination

A physical examination was made by the Department surgeons of all members of the Force to determine their physical fitness.

Change of Beats

Many officers had been walking their respective beats over a period of years. An order was issued to the effect that all men walking beats must, every six months, be transferred to other beats in their respective districts so that they may perform efficient police duty by knowing conditions on all beats in the district.

Establishment of Detective Districts

The Secret Service Bureau was operating entirely from Headquarters. The plan of dividing the city into detective districts was approved and eight detective districts were formed, each district being placed in charge of a detective sergeant.

Autos Vs. Horses

Certain portions of the Mounted Police District had developed so rapidly and population had increased so materially that horse beats were not practical and motor beats were substituted in lieu thereof.

New Motor Equipment

Motor equipment was increased very materially during the year, as follows: Automobiles were increased from 122 to 173; motorcycles from 44 to 75; men riding motorcycles were increased correspondingly. During the year the total mileage covered by Department automobiles was 2,574,049, and that of motorcycles 329,761, making a total of almost three million miles covered during the year.

Reserves

An automobile with two available police officers was assigned to duty at all times at the various police station houses. These reserves proved very beneficial during the past year, as quite frequently thieves were caught in the act, account the prompt response to such emergency calls.

Inventory of Police Property

A complete inventory was made of all police property and all insurance thereon was adjusted accordingly. Detailed information concerning the value of police property will be found elsewhere in this report.

Strict Qualifications for Professional Bondsmen

Persons who acted professionally as securities on police court bonds were required during the past year to file with Board a sworn statement giving their qualifications; particularly with reference to property. These qualifications were scrutinized carefully and the certificate of titles to all property furnished and left on file at the office of the Secretary of the Board. Personal references were also required and investigated. A qualified bondsmen's list was issued and posted in the various district police stations.

New Design for Patrol Wagons

A new type of patrol wagon was designed and three placed in service in the Central and Third Districts. The main changes were the lowering of the height of the patrol, placing a rear door and enclosing the body with glass. The windows were made of such a height as to permit proper ventilation, yet prisoners are not visible when being conveyed through the streets. Red and green lights were also placed on front and rear, thus insuring greater safety in emergency and ambulance calls.

Red and Green Lights

All Department automotive equipment with the exception of those assigned to the Secret Service Bureau were equipped with red and green lights, as well as license plates bearing the number of the car and indicating it to be a police car; and also a sign printed on each side of the car indicating it as a police vehicle.

New Style Uniforms

A decided change was made in the summer uniform which the men are required to purchase at their own expense. The old style military collar was supplanted with the low cut lapel, thus permitting the patrolman to wear a white shirt and neat black tie, this style of uniform being much cooler than the one formerly worn. The Traffic and Mounted police were furnished uniforms of Forester shade homespun cloth. Dress coats of commanding officers were changed and caps were substituted for hats.

Licenses of Private Watchmen to Expire Annually

Private watchmen in the past were given a commission which would run indefinitely. A change was made in the system, which required all private watchmen to be issued a commission which expired annually unless renewed. The old type badge issued to private watchmen merely designated them as private watchmen with a number, without specifying what city or state it represented. New licenses were purchased and issued to all private watchmen, thus insuring proper identification.

New Form of Commissions Issued

The form of the commission issued to officers from the rank of sergeant and above was designed.

Chief of Police to Supervise All Civilian Employees

All civilian employees in the Department were placed under the direct supervision of the Chief of Police.

Cost System Installed

A new bookkeeping and cost accounting system was installed by a reputable firm of certified accountants.

Ground Purchased for New Headquarters Building

Ground was purchased at the southwest corner of Twelfth and Clark for the erection of a new Police Headquarters building.

Modern Police Garage Completed

The police garage located at 3919 Laclede Avenue, which is modern in every respect, was completed and opened for use.

Special Privileges Eliminated

Courtesy cards issued by the Department and all special privileges were eliminated. All prior press badges were recalled and the issuance of press badges of a new type is limited to the members of the press only.

Personal Inspection of All Applicants for Force

Applicants for the Police Force were required to present themselves for a personal inspection by all of the members of the Board, and only those who passed this personal inspection were permitted to proceed with the mental and physical examinations.

Police Pension Fund Association Formed

In 1907 the St. Louis Police Force consisted of 1,692 men and now consists of 1,849 men, the total increase in 19 years being 157 men. Out of the present force, limited by law to 1,849 men, there were on July 1, 1925, 190 men 60 years of age or over—70 of these being over 65 years of age and some over 80 years of age. Many of these men, as disclosed by physical examination, were physically unfit to perform police duty. These unfit men had been permitted to remain on the force because there was no pension system and to dismiss them meant to turn them out of the only job they knew, without support in their old age. As the numbers on the force were limited by law, no increase could be made and these old men held places which should have been filled by capable young men, and their retention lowered to a marked degree the efficiency of the force.

In order to relieve this very unsatisfactory condition, the Police Board in September, 1925, with the co-operation of the members of the force, organized a corporation known as St. Louis Police Pension Fund Association, the purpose of which was to make possible the immediate pensioning of men totally unfit for police duty and to pave the way for a real pension system. The sole support of this association is the voluntary contributions by members of the force of five per cent of their monthly pay.

Upon the organization of this association, the Police Board proceeded to retire a number of men who were absolutely incapacitated for police duty, and at present there are about 45 former police officers who are receiving pensions from this association. While these retirements have improved the situation, the fact is that there are many men still on the Force who are no longer fit for active police duty and should be retired; but their retirement would constitute too heavy a burden upon the present temporary pension system, supported as it is entirely by contributions from the members of the Force.

The five per cent dues is a heavy tax on the members of the Force. To meet the emergency the Board undertook to get behind a movement to secure the adoption of a constitutional amendment permitting the use of public funds for police pensions, and which would result in placing the pension upon a permanent basis.

This amendment is necessary because the Constitution of Missouri, as construed by the Supreme Court, prohibits pensions to policemen.

Police pensions are authorized by law in nearly every city in the country having a population of 100,000 or over, except in St. Louis and Kansas City.

Sufficient signatures have been obtained to place this amendment on the ballot for the election in November, 1926, and the necessary petitions have been filed with the Secretary of State.
